U.S. To Up
 Viet Forces
 To 100,000

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United States plans to expand its 175,000-man force in South Vietnam to 100,000 men by late summer or early fall, it was learned Saturday.

The call for an increase of at least 25,000 men, including 10,000 Army, came from the Joint Chiefs of Staff, who met last week with the leading of more U.S. troops.

Whether needed
 The expansion will remain a matter of President Lyndon B. Johnson's discretion. The Joint Chiefs of Staff will be asked to advise the president on the matter.
